

Beast & Beauty WINTER SOLSTICE

Beast gifts his Beauty with an attentive "watch-goose" for her protection in the forest, while she picks his favorite pears and bakes them into a delicious pie.

Glue Beast's head so that the chin and beard are not attached. You can also cut Beauty's curls to hang over her shoulders.

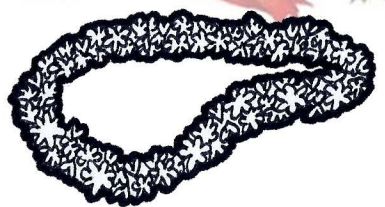

Beast & Beauty WINTER SOLSTICE

Happiest of Holidays,
Paper Doll
People!

After a fine dinner by a cheerful crackling fireplace, Beast and Beauty exchange
winter flowers,
symbols of the hope
of spring.

Later they will have hot cocoa and
read a fairy tale
about a farm boy
and a princess
in a galaxy far,
far away.

This flower crown will fit on Beast's head between his horns if you cut out the area inside the ring.

Carefully cut the dark lines above
and below Beauty's hands so that she can hold
the bouquet.
